AIB Insurance Brokers

AIB Representative – Michael Ball

AIB is one of the largest privately owned general insurance brokerage firms in Australia. Founded in 1982, AIB operates from purpose-built national head office premises at Maroochydore on Queensland's Sunshine Coast and also at Spring Hill in Brisbane.

AIB provide insurance solutions to businesses of all types and sizes looking for advice on managing their risks through the use of insurance products.

The company maintains service through sound advice and appropriate insurance covers.

Indigenous communities and organisations form a large part of AIB's national client base with appropriate insurance policies developed from a close understanding of their needs and aspirations.

AIB has been in business for twenty six years. The company is staffed by experienced professionals whose core role in life is to ensure AIB customers are confident their insurance risks have been addressed.

SEQICC members - contact AIB about your insurance needs.
