Tom Kirk Indigenous Consultant

Consultant – Tom Kirk

Tom Kirk Indigenous Consultant has been delivering Indigenous and cross cultural awareness raising programs across Australia since 2000.

The programs sensitise participants to Indigenous cultures and take participants on a journey of attitudinal exploration through history, cultures, cross-cultural behaviour and actions.

All those within the Public, Private and Community Sectors are potential clients for cultural awareness raising.

Many Australians seek insights into Indigenous Cultures and want more effective ways to deal with cross-cultural situations.

The one thing that Tom Kirk Indigenous Consultant offers to clients is 'an Outcome' that suits the specific needs as determined by the client to help manage difference and identify sameness.

Since the year 2000, 90% of all our working relationships have been through a "word of mouth" promotion from satisfied clients.

Participants will receive a sense of clarity about finding a way forward with cross-cultural communication and relationships.
